FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATIONS

INADEQUATE INTERNAL CONTROLS OVER CENSUS DATA

Southern Illinois University (University) did not have adequate internal control over reporting its census data and did not have a reconciliation process to provide assurance census data submitted to its pension and other postemployment benefits (OPEB) plans was complete and accurate.

Some of the more significant issues we noted during our testing included the following:

- The University had not performed an initial complete reconciliation of its census data recorded by the State Universities Retirement System (SURS) to its internal records to establish a base year of complete and accurate census data.
- We identified thirteen employees who had been improperly excluded from participating in SURS, which resulted in these people not having any employee contributions collected by the University and reported to SURS. The potential impact to each employee's total service credit was it could be off between 0 and 21.75 years. (Finding 1, pages 7-10).

We recommended the University implement controls to ensure census data events are timely and accurately reported to SURS. Further, we recommended the University work with SURS to annually reconcile its active members' census data from its underlying records to a report of census data submitted to SURS' actuary and CMS' actuary. After completing an initial full reconciliation, the University may limit the annual reconciliations to focus on the incremental changes to the census data file from the prior actuarial valuation, provided no risks are identified that incomplete or inaccurate reporting of census data may have occurred during prior periods. Any errors identified during this process should be promptly corrected by either the University or SURS, with the impact of these errors communicated to both SURS's actuary and CMS' actuary.

Finally, we recommended the University work with SURS and CMS to identify and address any unremitted or erroneously remitted employee and, if applicable, employer contributions related to these events.

The University agreed and stated the campuses are developing automated processes to address the recommendations.

We will review the University's progress towards the implementation of our recommendations in our next financial audit.
